

CELEBRATE: EASY-TO-SHARE RESULTS, PHOTOS, AND VIDEOS

IMMEDIATE RESULTS AND VALUABLE, NO-COST IMAGES

The moment an athlete crosses the finish line, they want to view and compare their results. Our Race Day App provides immediate access to this highly sought-after information. Through the mobile app, your athletes can:

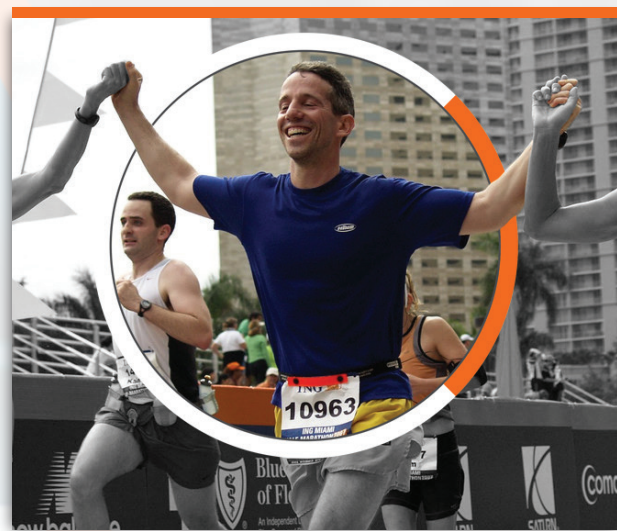

- View live race results the moment they cross the finish line
- Share their results instantly and broadly with friends, family, and followers via SMS message, Facebook or Twitter

In addition, your sponsors have a powerful opportunity to add to the celebration by offering branded race photos and videos free to the athletes, a service which provides:

- Exponential exposure for sponsor messaging
- A much-appreciated bonus for participants
- A valuable new revenue stream for you

Your event doesn't end at the finish line. Completing any type of endurance event is an amazing accomplishment, and it's always something worth celebrating. That's why Athlinks Services makes finding and sharing participants' results as easy—and fun—as possible.

CLAIM, SHARE, AND COMPARE

Our results platform integrates seamlessly with Athlinks.com. Results are posted immediately, allowing athletes to:

- Quickly find and claim their results
- Access every result, right at their fingertips, with easy-to-navigate filters
- Share their achievements in a social forum alongside other athletes
- Connect with like-minded friends, training partners, and even friendly rivals
- Compare results against their own personal best, their BFF, or the big dog in their age group
- Create a lasting archive of their accomplishments

With Athlinks Services, your participants will savor their race experience and results as lasting—and share-worthy—memories.
